Hi Gehry I need you to write the following things for me. First, you need to write a new sales brochure for the Jade Islands for customers. I have provided you with the headings for each section. For the Facts and Figures section, I've given you the answers, you write the questions. Look at the graphics I sent you yesterday and the positive comments made by the residents' concern group about living there. Also, I talked about the Jade Islands on the radio this week so you could have a listen to that. Second, we have now chosen the winners of the Jade Islands Home Viewing Day competition. Write them an email telling them they've won. Include in the email the date and where and when they will be picked up. Briefly tell them the schedule for the day and when they'll be dropped off. You can refer to our WhatsApp messages. I've forwarded you my email exchange with the bus operator as well. Finally, write a letter replying to the Jade Islands Residents' Concern Group's email. Please explain the cause of the problems and what DPP intends to do to solve them. Have a look at the engineering report, as well as our WhatsApp messages. I also talked about this on the radio this week. Thank you for all your hard work. Regards Norman

Wright & Pei Construction Engineering Report

(1) Background:

Wright & Pei Construction was requested to carry out repair work on the ongoing problem of flooding in the underground rail link to the airport at the Jade Islands. The purpose of this report is to provide Dragon Peak Properties with a response to queries about our work.

(2) Findings:

Repair work has been carried out over the last nine weeks. Good progress is being made. The work is ahead of the initial schedule. Given that the work is ahead of schedule, we can now reduce the number of working hours in the weeks ahead. The work will therefore be conducted from the hours of 9am to 7pm from Monday to Saturday from 10 April and we can still finish the work within the agreed time frame.

To Whom it May Concern: I am writing on behalf of the Jade Islands Residents' Concern Group. Let me start by saying how much we enjoy living on the Jade Islands. Dragon Peak Properties has done a fantastic job of providing an environmentally friendly place to live. The solar and wind technologies mean big savings on our electricity bills and the green roofs and balconies have been excellent for keeping us all cool in our increasingly hotter summers! However, not everything is perfect. We would like to draw your attention to two problems we feel very, very concerned about. First thing is the maintenance work on the underground rail link to the airport. My goodness, why does it have to be so noisy? AND it goes on ALL day and night and ALL through the weekend. It is driving us crazy! Please do something about it. As for the beaches – oh dear! Why oh why is there so much litter? Where is it all coming from? We all feel deeply embarrassed to show our friends and visitors our beaches. This is a terrible shame because the beaches are one of the best features of the Jade Islands. Come on DPP, you can do better than this! We look forward to hearing your response and demand an explanation along with proposed solutions or a summary of action that you've taken on the issue. Yours Mr Hannibal Chiu Jade Islands Residents' Concern Group

Hi Gehry

I need you to write the following for me.

First, as you will remember, I have a follow up meeting with Manu Architects on Monday to provide them with feedback on their initial concept plan for Golden Flower Adventure Mall. I asked our staff to send their comments to you, so you should have received these already. Please prepare a document for me indicating which features our staff say to keep and which not to keep from the initial concept plan. Also, summarise their opinions regarding how they would like to develop the features.

Second, write up an overview of what DPP has done in Hong Kong to protect the environment. Mention our recent achievements and what we are doing to protect the orchids and the butterflies on Golden Flower Island. This will be placed on our webpage in the section "Dragon Peak's Commitment to the Environment in Hong Kong". We want to reassure people that we are an environmentally friendly company.

Third, as a follow up to yesterday's team meeting, write the invitation to Ms. Tse explaining what her role will be and what we would like her to do at the Opening Ceremony. She apparently often rejects invitations like this so you need to mention things that might persuade her to accept. Have a look at her PlinyPedia entry and see if any of her interests or beliefs specifically align with what we are doing.

Thank you for all your hard work.

Regards

Norman

Extract from Flora and Fauna of South China by J.R. Hartley

Golden Dragon Tail Butterfly

This butterfly is quite common in Asia but exists in only a very few areas of South China. It is the only known species in South China that pollinates the extremely rare Splash of Gold Orchid. This rare and beautiful plant can now only be found on Golden Flower Island. Only half of this island has been designated by the HKSAR Government as a nature park due to it being an area of special scientific interest. Development is therefore only restricted in that part of the island. Trouble may be brewing, however, as the local press has reported that development plans are afoot for the island for 2017. Let's hope common sense prevails and we can protect these beautiful plants and creatures.

My thoughts so far...

Love their concept so far. This will be an awesome space for a variety of exciting activities. The waterfall, the ship and the lake – yes, all great ideas and should be the key features of the mall. Tell them to drop the castle though.

I'd like to suggest including a swimming pool in the mall design. I've told Ripple from our team to send you her comments. She's worked on several projects of a similar nature, so has some experience of this type of thing.

In order to maximize the potential activities within the central area of the mall, and in keeping with the overall jungle adventure theme, I'd suggest including ziplines over the swimming pool. I've included a stock photo to give you an idea of what I mean.

Hey Gehry Their initial concept plan is definitely in line with what we had discussed initially, i.e. a jungle theme. Love it! I agree with Mari about the castle. Since when are there castles in a jungle?! Personally, I'd go for making the lake an aquarium. Plus, the sailing ship can't really fit both restaurants and shops really when you think about it practically, can it? So I'd say take out the shops. As for the swimming pool idea, yes, I agree with Mari. We have worked on similar constructions in the UK in recent years particularly at the Highland Adventure Centre and the pool worked a treat there. As did the ziplines. One idea to think about for the mall is this:  Obviously we could never have the general public abseiling actually in the waterfall like this guy!!!! It would have to be on the sides. Cheers Ripple

Dear Norman

Yes, I heard that a query had been raised on the Business Matters radio show. The solution at the Highland Adventure Centre was quite costly at the time and the centre was closed for six months. Substantial reconstruction work was carried out reducing the waterfall from 45 to 30 metres. At that height, the clouds did not form as they had previously. Since the reopening of the centre, no similar problems have occurred.

By the way, I didn't get round to sending Gehry my recommendations, as I wanted to hear what everybody else was suggesting first. From our team's perspective, all the features proposed in Manu Architects' initial concept plan and in our staff's suggestions are definitely all practical. Nothing that we haven't done before.

Subject: Highland Adventure Centre

Dear Alison

As you may have heard I was ambushed by that Ann Lam from Green Treasure on Business Matters on the radio this morning. Such a nasty woman! She was going on about that Highland Adventure Centre in the UK that caused us all the headaches a couple of years back. I remembered that we'd had problems but didn't know the specifics. Can you remember how we resolved the issues?

Ripple: Oh yes, I was thinking about you and that summary you're working on for Norman for the meeting next week. You know about the Golden Flower mall? And I was thinking about the swimming pool. And I was thinking of a better recommendation to include. 10:07 PM

Gehry: Great! So what is it???? 10:08 PM

Ripple: Well, I was working on a mall in Singapore last year, I'm not sure if you remember. Well, they didn't only have a swimming pool in this mall. They had the swimming pool right next to the aquarium!! I kid you not. And I was thinking, we could do the same. 10:09 PM

Gehry: That sounds interesting but why would you put the swimming pool next to the aquarium? 10:31 PM

Ripple: So swimmers can swim next to the sea animals in the aquarium. Brilliant eh? 10:33 PM

Gehry: Wow! That is amazing. I presume they were separated by glass walls. Gosh! And I hope you made the glass walls thick enough! Ha ha. 10:34 PM

Ripple: Yeah they were. In fact, I was the first to swim in the pool to check it out. Ha ha. 10:46 PM

Gehry: And you weren't eaten alive! 10:54 PM

Ripple: No still here! 10:54 PM

Gehry: Great! Definitely something I'll include then. 10:55 PM

Ripple: And I was thinking, put the swimming pool under the waterfall. Can you imagine the water hitting you? Whoooosh!!! It would certainly maximize the excitement factor. 10:56 PM

Gehry: Brilliant! You're on a roll! Any other great ideas? 10:58 PM

Ripple: No! It's too late at night! My brain's gone dead. Night. 11:03 PM

DRAGON PEAK MAKES DEVELOPERS GREEN - WITH ENVY

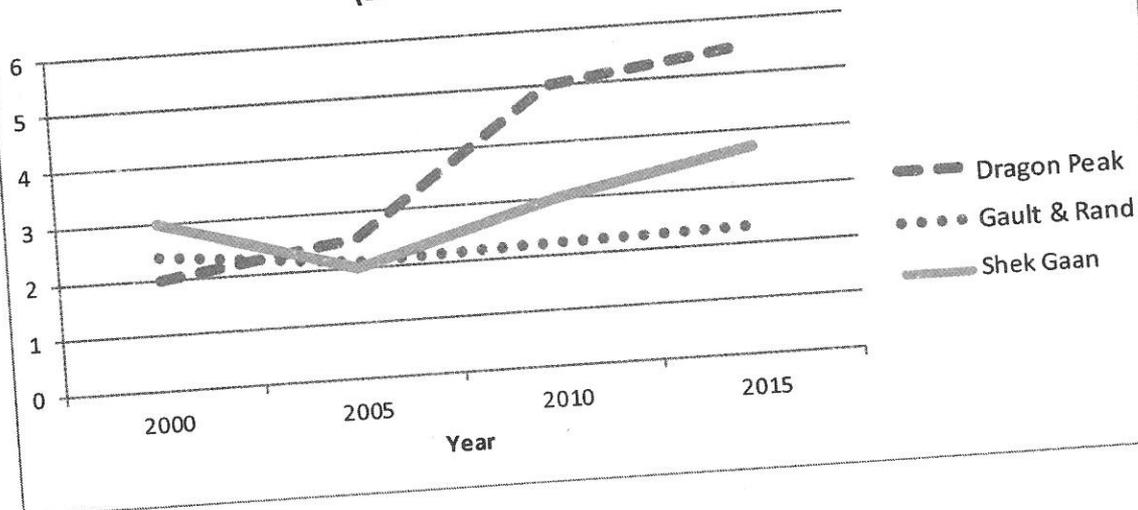

The results for the Greenest Development Award in the HKSAR were released by the Tai Shing Conservation Institute earlier this month (see below). Dragon Peak's win should come as no surprise given the amount the company has spent on environmentally friendly building technologies over recent years (see chart).

This commitment to environmental protection is not only confined to Hong Kong. It was announced that the developer has recently donated a "substantial sum of money" to the Save the Great Barrier Reef in Australia and "will do all we can to preserve the coral in Australia for future generations to witness and to marvel at".

Opening Ceremony of Mall

Dr Lo presented a progress report on construction work of the Golden Flower Adventure Mall. She confirmed that the provisional completion date of 30 November 2018 was still in place. A discussion ensued as to the best date for the opening ceremony to take place. 1 January 2019 was suggested as was leaving it until Lunar New Year. Finally it was decided that 24 December would be best as it would mean that the mall could immediately benefit from the holiday period over Christmas.

Mr Kwok reported the results of the opening ceremony budget proposal meeting with the Finance Department as follows:

Item	Requested budget	Approved ✓ Disapproved ✗	Reason
1. Guest of honour fees	HK$100,000	✓	n/a
2. Horse and carriage for ceremony	HK$50,000	✗	Refused due to insurance concerns.

Possible activities at the Opening Ceremony were discussed given the Finance Department's refusal of Item 2. Dr Lo suggested that if the guest of honour swam then he or she could be the first person to swim in the new pool as a way of declaring it open. All agreed. Ms Nakamura presented a selection of possible celebrities to be the guest of honour at the Opening Ceremony. From these it was decided to approach Ms Mariana Tse. All agreed. Gehry to contact her.

Ms Wu pointed out that Ms Mariana Tse was in the media recently for refusing to accept fees for a similar event. Mr Kwok suggested using the fees budget to make a donation to the charity of Ms Tse's choice. All agreed. Gehry to include this.

Meeting ended at 8:40 am.
